Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133).
- Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. Claims 1-24 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

There is no clear antecedent basis for "the travel amount detection devices" as recited in claim 1, lines 22 and 23.

Further, in claim 7, line 7 and in claim 14, line 18, it is unclear whether the term "the detection means" is referring to the "travel amount detection means" or the "widthwise shift detection means".

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

3. Claims 1, 2, 5, 6, and 10, as understood, are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Hollander.

Hollander shows a movable rack system comprising a plurality of movable racks (1) each having motor driven wheels (4), a travel amount detection means (21,22,23,24), and a control means (see col. 6, lines 37-45) for processing signals from the detection means (21-24) in order to correct any deviation from a predetermined path (9).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

5. Claims 1, 2, 5, 6, and 10, as understood, are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Spears et al. in view of Yoshida.

The patent to Spears et al. shows a movable rack system that contains all of the structural elements set forth in the above claims except for a travel amount detection means.

However, Yoshida shows a trackless movable body comprising a travel amount detection means (32,34) and a control means (36) for correcting the attitude of a misaligned body.

Accordingly, it would have been obvious to provide the travel amount detection means and accompanying control means of Yoshida on the Spears et al. system in order to maintain adjacent racks parallel to each other during their movement.

Allowable Subject Matter

6. Claims 3, 4, 7-9, 11-13, and 15-24 would be allowable if rewritten to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, set forth in this Office action and to include all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Art Unit: 3652

7. Claim 14 would be allowable if rewritten or amended to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, set forth in this Office action.

Priority

8. Receipt is acknowledged of papers submitted under 35 U.S.C. 119(a)-(d), which papers have been placed of record in the file.

Conclusion

9. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. The patent to Hatouchi et al. shows a movable rack system with a means of detecting misalignment (see Fig. 14).
